Rogers, Hammerstein Music Featured In First Concert

Solomon To Play Thursday Night

The Central Kentucky Community Concert and Lecture Series opens at 8:15 tonight in Memorial Coliseum with "Rogers and Hammerstein Nights." At 8:15 Thursday night, the series will feature Solomon, the pianist.

"Rogers and Hammerstein Nights" includes numbers from such Broadway success as "South Pacific," "Oklahoma," "Allegro," "State Fair," "Carousel," and "The King and I." Crane Calder, who has arranged and conducted all Rogers and Hammerstein symphonic programs touring the country since 1948, will direct tonight's production.

A concert orchestra, and chorus of 14, and four soloists are included in the company of "Rogers and Hammerstein Nights."

Four Soloists Will Appear
Leigh Allen, soprano from the New York cast of "South Pacific"; Carol Jones, mezzo-soprano from the Robert Shaw Chorus; Earl Williams, tenor from the New York cast of "Courtin' Time"; and Andrew Canney, baritone from the New York cast of "Kiss Me Kate" are the soloists.

The program will be divided into two parts. The first part will include the overture to "Allegro"; "It's A Grand Night for Singing" and "It Might as Well Be Spring" from "State Fair"; "Suite" from "Oklahoma"; and "June Is Bustin' Out All Over," "If I Loved You," "When I Marry Mr. Snow," "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "Soliloquy" from "Carousel."

After the intermission, the group will present "March of Siamese Children," "I Whistle a Happy Tune," and "Hello, Young Lovers" from "The King and I"; "A Wonderful Guy," "Younger Than Springtime," "There Is Nothin' Like a Dame," "Bali Ha'i," and "Some Enchanted Evening" from "South Pacific"; and "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "Surrey With The Fringe on Top," "Out of My Dreams," "People Will Say We're in Love," and "Oklahoma," from "Oklahoma."

Solomon
Pianist Scheduled Thursday

Leigh Allen
Featured Tonight

Solomon, who will play Thursday night, made his debut as a pianist when he was eight years old. At that time, he played two concertos in London's Queen's Hall. When he was nine, he was invited to play before the British Royal Family in Buckingham Palace.

The son of a London East End tailor, Solomon first came to the United States in 1926 for a concert tour. He returned in 1939 for the New York World's Fair, where he played the first world performance of the Arthur Bliss Piano Concerto, at the request of the composer, who travelled from England to hear it.

Solomon was awarded the Order of Commander of the British Empire during World War II for his many charity concerts, and for his entertainment of British troops.

Performed Near Firing Line
At times he performed within a mile of the firing line in France and Germany. Besides his work with the Forces, he continued his career and was an air raid warden in his home district.

In 1946, Solomon toured India and the Far East, playing for troops there, whom he felt had been neglected.

Two compositions by Bach make up the first group of numbers in Solomon's program. They are "Prelude and Fugue in C minor (Book II)," and "Prelude and Fugue in G major (Book I.)"

Mozart's Sonata Will Be Played

The second group will consist of three movements of Mozart's "Sonata in D major, K. 576," and the third group will include five movements from "Sonata in F minor, Opus 5," by Brahms.

After the intermission, Solomon will play four compositions by Chopin. They are "Ballade in A Flat Major, Opus 47," "Two Etudes," "Nocturne in D flat major, Opus 27, No. 2," and "Polonaise in A Flat Major, Opus 53."

Students will be admitted to both concerts upon presentation of their student identification cards.

The concerts are sponsored jointly by the University, The Lexington Public Forum, and The Central Kentucky Community Concert Association.

Lances Will Feature Clyde Trask's Band

Clyde Trask's orchestra will be the feature attraction at next Friday night's Lances Carnival dance. The dance follows the annual Carnival held on the intramural field.

Thirty fraternities and sororities will sponsor booths. Each organization will also have a candidate for queen. In preceding years the group which sold the most tickets to their booth was awarded a trophy. As an added honor their candidate was named Queen of the Carnival.

This year Lances is having out of town judges to pick the Queen. She will be chosen on the basis of personality, appearance, and charm. The winning girl will be given a trophy separate from that awarded to the winning booth.

Profits Provide Scholarships
Profits from the Carnival and dance are used for scholarships. Recipients of the scholarships are chosen on the basis of need and worthiness. Any male student is eligible.

Last year Lances gave two scholarships, one for $400 and one for $300. Lances was founded in 1902. The group originally had 13 members and was known as the Mystic 13. In the early 1930's the name was changed to Lances and was expanded to its present membership of 20. In 1941 they started giving scholarships using initiation fees for funds.

First Carnival Given in 1942
The first Carnival was given in 1942. Because of the war, the proceeds were given to the Red Cross. After the war, Lances again set up the system of giving scholarships to worthy students.

Junior men are the only students eligible for membership. Candidates are chosen twice a year — in December and in May. Seven men are taken the first semester and 13 are chosen the second semester. The May initiation retains some of the flavor of the original group by initiating the 13 new members on May 13.

This year's officers are Fred Davis, president; Henry Maser, vice president; Don Richardson, treasurer; and John Brannon, secretary. Faculty advisor for the group is Dr. W. H. Ward, head of the English department.

SGA May Cut Funds For Kyian, K-Book

Appeals By Publications To Be Heard Monday

The Kentuckian and the K-Book face cuts in their appropriations from the Student Government Association unless the two publications can show cause why their budget appropriations should remain the same. The decision was made at Monday night's meeting on a motion by Jess Gardner, a member of the SGA Budget Committee.

A proposed budget, drawn up by Gardner, President Bob Smith, and Bill Wilson, in conference with Comptroller Frank D. Peterson, was presented to the SGA for approval. The budget called for $5350 in expenditures, a cut of $150 from last year.

President Smith explained to the group that the SGA receives 50 cents from each student each semester, and since the enrollment this year is lower than in past years, the SGA funds were correspondingly lower.

Shows $850 Deficit

Only $4500 will be incoming from students this year, Smith said, and the remaining $850 deficit will have to be taken from a reserve fund built up from the unused balance from former years.

Gardner introduced his motion after pointing out that the various appropriations should be reduced in proportion to the reduction in income.

"I think it is a shame for the SGA to be saddled with a budget that was originated for a larger student body than we have now," Gardner said.

"Our budget for this school year is inadequate in both funds for social activities and also miscellaneous funds, from which many worthwhile activities have been aided," he added.

Freshman Orientation Lowered
If any money is taken from the Kentuckian and K-Book appropriations, Gardner said, it should be added to the other funds.

The Freshman Orientation fund was cut from a proposed $200 to $150 on a motion by Joe Shoepf. This fund is used to pay for the dance during Orientation Week.

Other items on the budget were approved by the SGA. They include $1300 to the Student Directory, $450 to the House Presidents' Council, $1750 to the Student Government secretary, $300 to the social fund, and $250 to miscellaneous funds.

The miscellaneous funds were originally set at $200 in the proposed budget, but the $50 cut from the Freshman Orientation Fund, was added to this amount.

Bere Says Cut Would Hurt Plans
Dave Bere, Kentuckian business manager, told a Kernel reporter this week the proposed cut would greatly damage the Kentuckian's plans.

"We're trying to make a better Kentuckian this year," Bere said. "We are already hampered by lack of funds, and if the SGA cuts our appropriations the Kentuckian will suffer."

Bere said the Kentuckian now operates on a non-profit basis, and any cut in funds would necessarily mean a cut in the quality of the Kentuckian.

"We are planning at present to add more color to this year's Kentuckian, and to put a better cover on it," Bere added. "A great university like ours should be represented by a great yearbook. But we can't operate without funds."

Dr. Croft Out of Town
Dr. Lyle Croft, head of the University Personnel Service, which directs the publication of the K-Book, was out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Representatives from the Kentuckian and the K-Book have been invited to appear at the next SGA meeting to air their side of the issue.

The SGA also moved to sponsor another campus-wide dance after the Kentucky-Tennessee football game. A local band will be booked for the dance, according to President Smith, and the Tennessee student body will probably be invited.

Guest Speaker Is Clark University Graduate Director

Dr. Samuel Van Valkenburg, director of the Graduate school of geography, Clark University, Worcester, Mass., will speak on the conflict between Russia and the United States in a series of lectures beginning at 11 a.m. Monday in the Guignol theater.

Dr. Valkenburg will speak three times in giving a geographic and geopolitical interpretation of the present world situation. His talks are scheduled at 11 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the Guignol theater. He will also hold an informal discussion at noon luncheon in room 205, SUB, on Monday.

The title of his Monday talk is "The Red Circle." On Tuesday he will discuss "World Inventory" in which Point Four will be indirectly included. Dr. Valkenburg will close his series with an illustrated lecture on "West of the Iron Curtain" on Wednesday.

Besides his duties with the Worcester, Mass. school, Dr. Valkenburg is chairman of the International Committee for an Inventory of World Land Use. He is also directing various programs for the Quartermaster's Corps, U.S. Army. He is closely associated with the activities of the State department and the UN. An accomplished linguist, he visits Europe each year to gain a first hand knowledge of world affairs.

Foreign Affairs Program Given By Government

The Department of State has announced its fourth Foreign Affairs Intern Program. The program is designed to give outstanding college seniors and graduate students work experience and training for a career in the field of foreign affairs.

In order to be eligible, students must file an application to take the U.S. Civil Service Commission Junior Management Assistant examination before Nov. 13. Then the student should advise the college nominating board that he is interested in being considered as a nominee.

The UK nominating board consists of Drs. Amry Vandenberg, Joseph H. Schwendeman, Irwin T. Sanders, Thomas D. Clark, and Lucian Carter. Their duty is to select those candidates worthy of the program. A student must be approved by the committee and pass the examination to be considered for the Foreign Affairs Intern Program.

Studies in the fields of international relations, political science, economics, business administration, public affairs, and related fields will be of value.

The training program includes nine months of specialized instruction at the Foreign Service Institute, observational assignments, work assignments within the State Department, preparation of special reports, and periodic seminars and conferences.

With the completion of these program assignments, the trainee will be transferred to a division within the department. Salaries start at $3100 to $3825 for entrance level positions.

UK Livestock Judging Team Participates At Ohio State

Rooms Available At Scott Street

There are some vacancies available in the Scott Street barracks. Anyone interested in obtaining a room should apply at the office of the Dean of Men in the Administration Building.

The University Livestock Judging Team gained further experience this past weekend by participating in a training contest at Ohio State University. This is the second outing for the eight members of the team.

This was not an official judging contest, but part of a round robin with members of the corn belt schools. These schools are Ohio State, Illinois, Michigan State and Purdue. By these training contests the teams of the different universities are preparing themselves for the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago in November.

The first competition for the University team was the Southern Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Contest at Memphis, Tennessee Sept. 21, 22. They finished second there among nine teams.

Besides the round robin contests the University team will compete in the Eastern Livestock Judging Contest at Baltimore, Md. early in November. This will be their final competition before the International Exposition at Chicago.

The team is now composed of Henry Meyer, Robert Hall, Tony Cocanougher, Neil Bradley, Lynwood Schrader, Bob Huffman, Herb Brown and John Wolf.

Of added interest to these boys is $700 worth of scholarships that go to the top seven in competition. Five of these individual $100 scholarships are being donated by the breeding associations of the state and two of them by the Block and Bridle Club of the University.

The winners of these scholarships will be announced later.

Suky Striving To Improve Card Section

Suky has announced that the card section show at the half-time of the games will henceforth be synchronized with a minimum of oral commands. From now on the leader will use the public address system only to announce the number of the next formation.

When he raises the card in his hand it will be the signal for the members of the card section to raise their cards. When he lowers his card it is the signal for the cards to be lowered.

Dave Bere, president of Suky, expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the card section last week. Bere said, "In order for the students to actually see what they are accomplishing, films of the show will be taken at one of the forthcoming games," he announced.

Tomorrow Last Day To File For Degrees

All seniors who expect to complete their requirements for graduation at the close of the first or second semester or the summer term are requested to make application for degrees today or Saturday. This applies also to graduate students who expect to complete their requirements for graduate degrees. All applications should be filed in Room 16 of the Administration Building.

As the commencement lists are made from these cards, it is very important to file an application at this time.

Candidates for the bachelor's degree will be charged a graduation fee of $9.00. This will cover the rental of cap and gown, diploma fee, The Kentuckian, and other necessary expenses. Candidates for advanced degrees, other than the doctorate, will be charged a fee of $20.00, which will cover the above, with the exception of The Kentuckian, and in addition to the cost of the hood to be presented the candidate. The fee for the doctorate is $25.00. Graduation fees are payable not later than the fourth day preceding commencement.

Speech Clinic To Be Held Next Week

A speech and drama clinic will be conducted on the University campus Monday and Tuesday. The clinic is sponsored by the Department of University Extension, Department of English, and Kentucky Speech Teachers Association.

Highlights of the program include a dinner and talk at 6 p.m. on Monday in the football room of the Student Union Building and a dramatic interpretation at 8:15 p.m. in the Guignol Theatre.

Mr. Boyd Martin, drama editor of the Courier-Journal and director of the Little Theatre at the University of Louisville, will be the after-dinner speaker at the dinner in the SUB. The dinner reservations, which are $1.25 each, may be obtained by calling the Department of University Extension.

The dramatic interpretation will be given by Dr. Gladys L. Borchers, professor of speech and education at the University of Wisconsin.

Immediately following the program, a reception will be given in honor of Dr. Borchers and Prof. Martin in the music lounge of the Fine Arts Building. Those attending the Speech and Drama Clinic are invited to the reception.

The complete program for the clinic may be obtained at the office of the University Extension Service in the basement of Frazee Hall. All events on the program are free except the dinner.

Sigma Nu, KD's Lead With ODK Tag Sales

ODK tag sales proceeds from the Mississippi State game are to be turned in at 7 p.m. Monday in Room 127 of the SUB. Tags can also be picked up at that time for the Villanova game.

Jack Ballantine, ODK spokesman, announced that Sigma Nu leads the fraternity division in Tag Sales. Kappa Delta is the leader for the sororities. Second place for the men goes to Lambda Chi with the Phi Deltis running third. For the women, Chi Omega is second and Alpha Delta Pi are third.

Trophies are given to the winners and runners up in each division. This year the winners will also be allowed a voice in choosing the ODK project for the year.

Rhodes' Tests To Be Held In December

American Students To Be Awarded Study At Oxford

The annual competition for Rhodes Scholarships will be held in all the states in December 1951.

These scholarships, authorized under the will of the South African diamond millionaire, Cecil Rhodes, will be awarded to a certain number of American college students on the basis of superior ability in both scholastic and extracurricular fields.

Valued now at 500 pounds sterling, these scholarships are available for use at Oxford University starting in October 1952.

Students who qualify under the GI Bill may expect the same benefits at Oxford as they received at an American university.

An appointment to a Rhodes Scholarship lasts for two years, with a possible third year made available to those whose records and plans of study make such an award available.

To be eligible, a candidate must be a male citizen of the United States and unmarried, between the ages of 19 and 25 on October 1, 1952, and have completed at least his sophomore year by the time of his application. In addition, he must receive an official endorsement of his college or university.

A candidate may apply either in the state in which he resides or in the state in which he has received at least two years of his college education before applying.

Applications must be in the hands of the state committee not later than Nov. 3. Final selections by district committees will be made on Dec. 15. Copies of the Memorandum of Regulations, application blanks, and other information may be obtained at the office of Dean M. M. White, Room 128, McVey Hall.

UK Chess Club Meets Weekly

The University Chess Club now meets at the YMCA Building, 239 E. High Street. The meetings are held each Thursday evening from 7 to 10 and on Saturdays from 1 to 5 p.m.

Any chess player or student interested in learning the game is invited to visit the club and participate in its activities. Townspeople and faculty members are also welcome.

Many activities have been planned for the coming year. The club is sponsoring a national chess master to play an exhibition and be available for consultation on individual problems. Later in the year there will be a club championship tournament.

The Chess Club is headed at present by Fred Payne, who is the state champion chess player. The vice-president is Dr. Dudley Roberts of the Psychology Department. George Roberts, professor of agronomy, is the secretary and treasurer.

The Chess Club has been organized for about six years and now has a membership of 15.

Budget Cutting Will Be Problem

Due to the drop in student enrollment, SGA has already been forced to cut its budget by $150. Now it is faced with the problem of making reductions in what have been its more or less permanent appropriations so that it can have a surplus to take care of organizations which may have a real need for the money later in the semester. The job of deciding just where to make the cut will be no easy problem.

The following are a few things we think SGA members should take into consideration before they decide definitely where to make the needed cut.

1. The Kentuckian, which has been receiving $500 of the budget, has already signed contracts in expectation of that amount. Any reduction in the Kentuckian would have to be made in the pages not paid for by organizations, the junior and senior picture pages, and the photographing for these pages has already started.

2. The House President's Council, which is to receive a total of $450, proposes to spend approximately $200 of this amount for a vocational conference. This conference was not held last year because of scheduling difficulties although money for it was included in that year's appropriation. Whether or not this money has been spent or remains to be used for this year's conference we do not know.

However, we think that if the Kentuckian and the K-Book must show reason why they should receive their appropriations the House Presidents Council should show that this year's conference will be an improvement over those of the past, which have attracted little or no student interest.

Vocational guidance is of course needed, but a councilor who would consider individual student problems seems the answer rather than a conference which in the past had to be made compulsory before a respectable attendance could be obtained.

3. SGA's secretary, who receives an annual $1750 salary, is responsible mainly for taking care of parking violations at the University. She also does typing and mimeographing for the organization. Since the students have only about 150 parking spaces, such an expenditure seems a little high. It is very doubtful that her work is of such a technical nature that it could not be handled by several University students working part-time shifts. At prevailing student wages this should result in a $600 or $700 saving.

4. The $300 set aside as a special fund for defraying the loss of the recently sponsored student dance could very possibly be eliminated if the succeeding dances which have been planned were managed so as to realize a small profit. This should not be too difficult, since it is unlikely that SGA will have to go to any great expense such as hiring two named hands for any of the remaining dances, now that the idea of all-campus dances has been well received by the student body.

It appears entirely possible that by cutting some of the less necessary items of the budget, SGA might not be forced to reduce its appropriations to organizations which have a more pressing need for the money and might even be able to retain some money for worthy causes which may have need of funds later in the year.

UK Fans Show Pep But At Wrong Time

Coach Bryant may feel that he has himself a team now; that fans will no longer refer to it as "ours", but we can't agree with him. However, after the conduct of the UK rooters at last Saturday's game it wouldn't surprise us if the team refused to claim the fans.

A certain amount of disagreement with the officials is to be expected, especially when one team is penalized more than a hundred yards, but when it becomes necessary for the state police to escort the referees from the field we are inclined to believe that the fans have gone a little too far.

Kentucky fans, never noted for their sportsmanship, certainly did little to improve their standings Saturday. Evidently the outburst at the close of the game was meant in some way to show their support of the Wildcats, for we seriously doubt that more than a handful actually felt that the officials had made any intentionally bad calls. If this was the case, the fans made a mistake.

Just as spectators cannot respect a team that plays in an unsportsmanlike manner, so can a team have little respect for fans who refuse to play the role of loser without blaming the defeat on the officiating.

It is time that UK fans learned that the Wildcats are a young inexperienced team, and as such are certain to make mistakes and receive penalties. Cheering during the game might do the team some good, but not amount of hooting after the final whistle can help anyone concerned.

The Kernel withholds names on request, but does not print unsigned letters. Letters pro or con on any subject of student interest are always welcomed.

Student's Wife Says UK Band Unnoticed At Saturday's Game With Georgia Tech

Dear Editor:

A note of profound sympathy to the Marching 100 and Warre Lutz, whose hard work and tireless efforts for marching perfection went unnoticed in Saturday's game.

For the benefit of those whose fickle attention was centered on the "card tricks" at the half, your band executed some brilliant and now maneuvers to the tune of new and beautiful arrangements, while last year's sponsor gave her place to the present sponsor in what should have been an impressive scene if anyone had bothered to watch.

The card entertainment was different and clever, but hardly worthy of sacrificing the artistry of the band. Perhaps at the next game the stunts could be switched to compete with the National Anthem.

Just one more thing—I have no connection with the band. I am just a student wife.

Musie Lover.

Killing Of Squirrel Angers Observers

Dear Editor:

Last week we two saw a terrible thing occur on the campus. Some boys killed a squirrel with a rock. This was not difficult for them, because the nearly tame squirrels living on the campus have learned to trust the students. And too, this was not difficult because of man's advantage over the small animal. Man has a mind and weapons; animals have only their natural instincts. Perhaps the boys felt this was sport. But if they want to hunt, they should go into the woods and hunt free-living animals—that have a chance to use their natural instincts to escape and to protect themselves.

Suky Campaign For Informal Dress Wins Approval Of Football Fans

By Emily Campbell

Suky's campaign for informal dress for the afternoon football games seems to have met the approval and acceptance of the student body by the response which everyone noticed at the Georgia Tech game. With a hot day like last Saturday I think that everyone found the game more enjoyable and was more comfortable dressed informally.

Congratulations to Suky and especially to Bruce Cotton for the grand job he did with the card section at the last game. A picture in this week's Kernel will show you just how effective the card section is. The seats in the section are between the 40 and 0 yard line and it only takes about 10 minutes of un-concentrated work during the half.

Keenland Opening Is Signal To Begin Fashion Parade

By Beth Gallivan

To residents of the Bluegrass, the Keenland meet is an important and eventful holiday, peculiar to a Kentuckian's way of life and as vital as his country ham and beaten biscuit. It is a season for greeting old friends and meeting new ones at the Keenland track.

My parents were chatting with a group of people between races, people were milling about, the track was empty and mud-spattered, and I had lost my program. In short, there was nothing to do but sit and watch the crowd's pattern around me.

A voice from behind startled me and I half turned to identify its owner. It was Miss Smith, a buyer for one of Lexington's sport shops. She smiled, and said, "This is an exciting place, isn't it?"

Fashions Parade At Race Track
I agreed. She sat down beside me. "It's part of my job to be out here. I like to see which way the fashion wind is blowing."

For the next few minutes, Miss Smith talked on and I had the feeling of being in a ringside seat at a showing of this season's fashions. "Forever" Brown is New Color. "For instance, the blonde over there — standing by the rail — notice how effectively she has combined several shades of this year's 'forever' brown — a pale brown skirt, a beige shirt, soft brown calf belt, and clear gold jewelry. There is a definite trend this season toward the wide (without gathers) silhouette. The shape of an outfit is in the cut, and is more angular than in recent years."

"Now look! An oxford grey flannel suit with matching shoes and bag. You'll see that the suit jacket is cut — almost cropped — close, fitted and short. The hat is the thing, though. That slouch type is vaguely reminiscent of the early 1930's. It looks good with her longer hair. That hat just finishes her ensemble perfectly!"

Flannel Is Versatile Material
"Mm-m, while we are on flannel, the girl in the mixed green flannel (that is grey flannel in a green haze, to you lay people) is using an unconventional color blend. Can't you see her? With that skirt she has used a very pale blue cashmere sweater, and hunter green shoes in kid. Kid, by the way, is one of those 'revival' styles this year. The kind of thing you always liked anyway, but the designers had just neglected to remind you of the fact for the last seven or eight years."

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 25
THE SEA HORSE

This little gee-gee was all at sea. It was enough to upset his equine-imity. He'd been reading about those rush-rush cigarette tests — the quick sniff, the fast puff. "Hardly the scientific approach," he said in his confusion. But then he realized that one test is an equine of a different pigmentation—a thorough, conclusive test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a day-after-day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

Killing Of Squirrels

We feel that the killing of this squirrel for no purpose whatever was a very inhumane act. It is, in our opinion, not only a violation of the law, but a violation of the rights of others. The majority of the students get a great deal of pleasure from watching these creatures playing in the trees.

This killing was a very adolescent act, and showed a lack of feeling and sensitivity. No intelligent college student would do such a thing. Two squirrel lovers.

Wildcats To Meet Mississippi State In Conference Tilt Tomorrow Night

Kentucky's three-beaten Wildcats will be out to regain some badly needed prestige here tomorrow night as they tangle with the Maroons of Mississippi for the first night game of the season.

The Cats, who have managed to win only once this season and that at the expense of little Tennessee Tech, will be after the Maroons who last week upset highly rated Georgia 7-0.

This was the Maroons' second victory in three tries, losing only to the Volunteers of Tennessee 14-0 two weeks ago. The Maroons attack was led by Frankie Branch, a 126-pound quarterback, who shapes up to give the Wildcats a hard evening on Stoll Field.

Although an underdog in the Georgia tilt, the Maroons struck quickly—much like Kentucky in their 13-7 loss to Georgia Tech Saturday—and scored a touchdown in the opening minutes of play, then threw up a tight defense and held Georgia scoreless.

The earlier loss to Tennessee can be attributed to a blocked punt and a fumble, both deep in Maroon territory. Outside of these two touchdowns the Maroons managed to maul State, the Maroons tallied more points against the mighty Cats than any other single team last season.

Coach Paul Bryant in commenting on the Maroons will bring that same great defensive unit to the Bluegrass Saturday in an effort to avenge a 48-21 licking the Sugar Bowl champions gave them last season. Although the Cats managed to maul State, the Maroons tallied more points against the mighty Cats than any other single team last season.

Recreational Hours Announced For Pool

Swimming coach Algie Reece announced this week that a recreational swimming program is now available to all students. The recreational hours are on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday nights from 7:00 until 9:00 p.m. On Saturday, when varsity games are not being held, the pool will be open from 3:00 until 5:30 p.m.

For students interested in senior life saving classes, the class meets on Monday night from 8:00-10:00 o'clock.

Married students who have children are invited to bring them to the Play Club starting Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

on the Maroons, said "they are the dark horse of the Southeastern conference and the most underrated team in the conference."

Statistically, State has one of the heaviest lines the Cats has faced this year and last year had one of the best defensive records in the nation. With Kentuckians seeing many scoring threats fizzling out on the oppositions five, 10 and 15 yard strips, it remains to be seen if the Babe will be able to maneuver around or through this line to striped pay dirt.

Game Important To UK
This game could very well prove to be the banana peeling for the Cats as a loss could send them into oblivion this season.

Football Coach Is Allowed One Error In Three Years

By Chuck Tilley

The Georgia Tech game revealed one thing—UK is loaded with quarterbacks and coaches.

The big topic of conversation around the campus the past week has had to do with the fatal fourth down play of last Saturday. The consensus of opinion is that it was the wrong play.

As things turned out, it was the wrong play. It may have been the turning point of the game. And second guessers have been quick to point that out.

It is all water over the dam now and as we look back, we can see it only one way. The best coach-quarterback combination in America called that play. In 1949 that combination called the plays which led the Wildcats to the Orange Bowl. Last year the same team found its way to a Sugar Bowl championship. They will call a lot more this year which will be right.

We think they are entitled to one mistake in three years.

It was a bit of masterminding which saw Harry Jones at fullback in the Tech game. On the eve of the game, Coach Bryant announced to newsmen that Allen Felch, a 200-pound freshman, would start at that position. The Tech coaches showed surprise but Bryant insisted Pans can stand a cherry smile, however, after reading what Tech coach Bobby Dodd said about Tech charges following their first scrimmage Monday after the game with the Cats. Coach Dodd stated that every player either had a patch or bruise on him and he listed several doubtful starters, which attest the hard charging of Kentucky's play.

The Cats will be out Saturday to try and defrost some of the warm weather fans that Coach Bryant so aptly called them.

A win over the Maroons might very well prove to be the spark to ignite the Kentucky attack that has fizzled so badly most of the season so far.

Felch was the man for the job.

The pre-game lineup listed Felch. With advance reports at hand describing the power which Felch packs, the Engineer defense was unprepared for the quick opening plays with the 160-pound Jones breaking away.

The versatility of 1A was again demonstrated. It was already known he could play halfback with the best. But few suspected he could act the role of a fullback. He made Coach Bryant look good in placing him in that job.

Besides running well at two positions, he grabs passes like an end and kicks the points after touchdowns.

During the spring he teams with twin brother Larry to form UK's shortstop-second base combination.

The shower room version of the Marine's Hymn which escapes from the football dressing room is for the benefit of Tony Wrann, a member of the B squad. Tony was recently discharged from the Leathernecks at Camp Lejeune, N. C., where he played service football.

A native of Gary, Ind., Tony saw service in the Pacific Theater during the war, was discharged, but called back into the reserves and sent to Japan. The current rotation plan of the Marine Corps allowed him another discharge and the opportunity to go to school.

He weighs 220 pounds and coaches say that with a little college experience, the ex-sergeant will be able to use the knowledge he acquired while playing football—Leatherneck style.

Touch football got underway on the intramural field this week and Intramural Director Bill McCubbin expressed satisfaction with this fall's program.

There is a lot of fun in these games and it would be worth your while to watch the games. How about picking a team, watching the schedule, and going down to cheer for the fellows.

There are a lot of high school hot-shots passing the ball around and you'll see some good games.

In previous years several games have been forfeited because teams failed to appear for the games but this year's lineup looks like a well knit organization and all indications point to a good season ahead.

Cross Country Team Cards Four Contests

The renewal of the UK Cross Country team, which is in its third week of training, is beginning to show signs of strength with 14 men reporting for practice daily and more expected to sign up in the next few days.

The training is under the direction of the Spiked Shoe Society, Jay Wallace, president of the society and captain of the UK track team, is in charge of the group. As runner-coach, Wallace will appear with the team as well as conducting training sessions. Dr. Don Sexton is advisor for the group.

Among the outstanding member of the group is Dwight "Speedy" Price, a distance runner on the track team and a member of last year's NCAA championship basketball team. Price intends to devote all his time this year to track.

Bradbury Looks Good
Jim Bradbury, the winner of the 1949 Intra-mural Turkey Run, is also on the squad and is being counted on heavily by Coach Wallace.

Other men who have looked good in early drills are Tom Weide, Ray Jones, Ralph Hovermail, Dug Aderson, Jim Bartram, Van Nutt, Joe Coffman, Tom Sandase, Ben Cohen, Jack Christian, and Dick Rundall.

Wallace said he is looking for other prospects for the three-mile Picadome Golf Course cross country site. Anyone interested may contact either Wallace or Dr. Sexton at Alumni Gym.

Sweater awards will not be given but points will be allowed which will count toward a major letter in spring track.

Four Meets Scheduled

Four meets have been scheduled for the fall, each of which will cover the three-mile course.

The first meet will be Nov. 3 at 11 a.m. against Cincinnati at Lexington. On Nov. 10 the team will travel to Berea College, Marshall College, a member of the Ohio Valley Conference, will appear in Lexington Nov. 17 at 11 a.m.

On Thanksgiving Day, the UK runners will participate in the Shamrock Run at Louisville.

German Club Meet To Be Held Thursday

Miss Ruth Moore, acting president of the German Club, has announced the club will hold its first meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday on the third floor of Miller Hall. A program of varied entertainment is scheduled.

Power Shown In I-M Touch League

By Larry Meyer

The Intramural touch football season got under way last Monday night in fine fashion. There was team spirit personified and terrific line blocking to say nothing of the beautiful passes completed. In the opening games, Phi Kappa Tau applied ZBT, SAE romped over AGR, PSK lost to PDT, TKE edged LXA and the All Stars forfeited to the Rebels.

Tuesday night, PKA whipped SPE, KA won from ASP and ATO beat the Triangles. The following is a rundown of the games.

PKT 20 — ZBT 0
Phi Tau ran through the ZBT's with ease as Pete Massie passed them to a 20-0 win. PKT scored all 20 points in the first half on two TD passes by Massie to Gene Neff and one to Larry Bevins. Poor pass defense plus three pass interceptions, led to ZBT's downfall.

SAE 50 — AGR 0
In the second game of the evening, SAE wreaked destruction on the out-manned but game AGRs 50-0. Leading the SAEs was C. M. Newton and Skippy Whittaker who combined to score four TDs. Frank Ramsey caught two passes and Mandt took one for touchdowns. Last year's champs looked as if they could go on to win this year but that is to be seen as all the teams are capable of fashioning an upset.

PDT 15 — PSK 0
The third game found the PDTs overcoming the inexperienced Phi Sigs 15-0. The Phi Dells had a good solid team bolstered by the sterling line play turned in by Bill McCann, a stalwart for the last three years. Outstanding on offense was Moesser who tossed 2 TD passes to Dick Kessler and Denny Steinkner.

The Phi Sigs had a nice passer in Bill Nix but had little help in the receiving department. With a little practice, they could probably turn into a pretty fair unit.

New Swimming Club Open For Membership

Persons passing the entrance test will belong to the "major" club, and beginners to the "minor" club.

Officers elected this week are Jean Hardwick, president; Doty Pfeiffer, vice president; Mary Wharton, secretary; and Marty McKinney, treasurer.

TKE 1 — LXA 0
The best game of the evening from the closeness standpoint was the game in which TKE edged out LXA 1-0 in a sudden death overtime. The line play was ferocious and the blocks aggressive. The line play of Maurice Van Meter and Art Jacobs were the bright point in the TKE defensive machine. Fred Molsberger shone for the Lambda Chi cause. The Tokes put up a stiff pass defense, but were weak in offense with Gene Bouchy and Al Luppini carrying the brunt.

The regulation time ended with the score 0-0 and the overtime was made necessary. The Tokes made 24 yds. in their series and then the LXAs, with fourth down up, needed but 3 inches to win. The Tokes defense stopped them for a five yard loss and that was the game.

The last game on Monday's card was forfeited by the All Stars to the Rebels for the use of two ineligible players.

PKA 18 — SPE 0
Tuesday night saw the Sig Eps and the Phi Kaps doing battle to the tune of 18-0. Phi Kaps. The PKA offense was top notch with Don Donohue and Gene Auen carrying them to victory. The Sig Eps, due to poor pass defense, just weren't in the game. On the second play of the game, Donohue passed to Auen for 30 yards and a score. The Phi Kaps look as if they'll be the team to beat in their division but only the future will be able to tell.

KA 7 — ASP 0
It was just a case of superior reserves as KA beat Alpha Sigs 7-0. KA scored their TD and extra point in the second quarter on a 35 yard pass from Louie Beard to Willie Rouse with Howard passing to Rouse for the extra point. The game was a wide open defensive game with neither team showing much. The bright points were the defense put up by both teams. Outstanding performances were turned in by Don Williamson and Louis Beard.

ATO 15 — Triangle 0
ATO went to town at the expense of the engineers as they threw up a tough defense and scored early in the second quarter on a 40 yard pass from Jack Colson to Lee Baker in the end zone. Mark Lockett ran around end for the extra point. It wasn't until the last quarter that the ATO's scored again on another Colson-Baker pass. The Triangles had an outstanding player in Joe Simon, but they were weak in offense due to the lack of timing.

Tommy Adkins Named Player Of The Week

By Don Armstrong

"Wildcat" is the word for Tommy Adkins. Even in the heartbreaking defeat Kentucky absorbed at the hands of Georgia Tech last week, the Corbin sophomore never gave up the Kentucky cause, kept fighting like a demon from his defensive fullback post.

Time after time the 190-pound Adkins ripped into the Jacket offense with his vicious tackling, stopped Tech ball carriers in their tracks. We have a soft spot in our typewriter for that kind of spirited competition.

A quiet, unassuming type of guy off the field, "Airy"—as he likes to be called—was quick to catch the attention of the Kentucky coaching staff in his performances as a frosh Klitten last season. The venerable Bear regards Adkins as one of the finest prospects among upcoming sophomores.

Tommy's action last Saturday singled him out as "player of the week." Adkins, Gene Donaldson, and Larry Jones provided some bright spots for fans who watched the bleakest afternoon of football on Stoll Field since the 1940 Tennessee game.

In addition to his stellar work against the Tech ground game, Adkins was also sharp on pass defense. One time in particular, Adkins was on the line of scrimmage when Jacket quarterback Crawford cut loose with a bullet aerial. Tommy went high into the air and raked the football to the turf, almost intercepting the ball.

Tommy compiled an enviable record at Corbin high school, where he participated in football, basketball, and baseball. He was picked to the second all-state team as a junior, and in 1950 was chosen the runner-up as outstanding player of the East-West grid classic at Bowling Green.

Adkins plans a career in some type of athletics after graduation from Kentucky. He says he would like to coach or teach physical education.

A guard in high school, Adkins was moved to center when he enrolled at the University. He played the pivot post for the freshman team last year, but his ability as a defensive player has billeted him as a defensive fullback on the varsity lineup.

Dom Fucci Returns To UK As Frosh Football Coach

Dom Fucci, a standout defensive back and kicker on last year's Southeastern Conference and Sugar Bowl champions, has been hired by Coach Paul Bryant as assistant freshman coach.

Fucci's job will be to work with the defensive frosh backs, and to scout high school teams in search of outstanding prospects.

Obviously happy at his appointment, Fucci said it was just what he has been hoping for. He wants to make a career of coaching, preferably in the college ranks.

Fucci expects to receive his degree in January, and then, like most other young men, he has a date with his uncle. He was commissioned in the Air Force ROTC last spring.

While playing for the Wildcats, he earned the title of the Billy Goodman of college football, seeing action as an end, halfback, quarterback, defensive back, and punter. He particularly excelled in the latter two positions.

All American Baseball
A star catcher and outfielder for the Cats, Fucci was named to the first annual All-America team, the only UK baseballer so honored.

He spent the summer playing with a New York Yankee farm club, and then tried out with the Washington
